Too late for second-guessing
Too late to go back to sleep
It's time to trust my instincts
Close my eyes
And leap...

It's time to try defying gravity
I think I'll try defying gravity
And you can't pull me down"
–Wicked

"I do not know what I may appear to the world; but to myself I seem to have been only like a boy playing on the seashore, and diverting myself in now and then finding a smoother pebble or a prettier shell than ordinary, whilst the great ocean of truth lay all undiscovered before me."

~ Isaac Newton

You have inspired us with your determination and hard work. Your will to succeed and address life's challenges is something you should be proud of as well. You have grown and matured as a young woman through your studies at Holy Cross, your internship for Senator Clinton in Washington D.C. and the many friendships you have developed at school.

It has been a wonderful and rewarding journey for us to watch. As you continue to grow, your experiences gained at Holy Cross will stay with you forever. We hope you always remember that hard work and belief in yourself will help you overcome any obstacles.

Just ask the Super Bowl XLII Champion New York Giants!

Love,
Dad, Mom, Tim, and Grandma

Great job, Kelly!
We had fun with you at H.C.

CONGRATULATIONS KENNY

Dear K-Nat,

Congratulations are well deserved for all you have achieved and accomplished at Holy Cross these past four years.

You demonstrated dedication and leadership to your extra-curricular activities, true friendship, love, and loyalty to your many friends, good sportmanship, teamwork, and camaraderie to your fellow atheletes. In addition, you distinguished yourself academically and have maintained devoutness to God for which you are truly blessed.

We have no doubt of your successful future because you possess the qualities one needs to have a fulfilled life.

We couldn't be prouder of the man you have become. You have exceeded our expectations and we revel in what is yet to come.

May God continue to bless you.

With love and pride,
Mom, Dad, and Kelly

Dear Anthony,

It seems like it was just a short while ago that we drove up to Hanselman, car packed with everything we thought you would need for your first year of college. We carted all of your belongings up to Room 115 where we met Chris, your dorm roommate. We liked him immediately and thought you guys would click, which you did and have since, for all of these past four years.

Lugging all your stuff to the room was the easy part. Leaving you there was not. Actually, I vaguely recall having to dissuade your father from setting up a cot for himself in your dorm room. But, leave you we did. Then we stepped back and held our breath as you navigated your way through the excitement of being on your own, the trepidation that goes along with it and the brief but wholly expected "I don't know if this is workin' for me" phase. It didn't make it any easier for both you and Lauren as she made her way to college as well.

In looing back now, so many things have happened during your college years that we know you'll never forget. For instance, how about that late night trip to the ER after snowboading with the cafeteria trays down Holy Cross' infamous "expert trail", (hmm, that's right, Chris didn't use a tray, did he); and how about the time you cut your own hair-into a mullet; oh yeah, that look really worked for you! We'll bet that there are more stories just like those that we don't even want to know about (but we're sure you did us proud!).

What we do know though, is how hard you've worked at Holy Cross. Not only with your classes, but with the activities you've been involved in while there, from working in the video store, to becoming an RA, performing Improv, playing Lacrosse, and so on.

It's bittersweet, this place in time. You're moving into another stage of life yet not really wanting to let go of this one. But even through all of the uncertainty, we know one thing-you'll always run and you'll always leap...

Congratulations on your graduation, Anthony; we love you! Kyrie eleison.

Mom, Dad, Alex, Michael

To my beautiful and brilliant daughter.

I am so proud of you today for all your accomplishments and achievements. I am pleased with the kind, caring and involved woman you have become. I love you and know that you will achieve much success in pursuit of your legal dream.

To our son and brother, Greg Minogue:

"If one advances confidently in the direction of his dreams, and endeavors to live the life that he has imagined, he will meet with a success unexpected in common hours...If you have built castles in the air, your work need not be lost; that is where they should be. Now put the foundations under them."

- Henry David Thoreau

These last four years...

We have watched in wonder as your dreams took form.
We have gazed on with grateful hearts as your confidence soared,
all the while delighting in your castles.

Now...

With hearts swelling with pride and with absolute faith in your success,
We look to the foundations that your creativity, passion, and brilliance will lay.
Oh, what castles these will be!

And forever...

We will love you.

With love and pride,
Mom and Dad,

To laugh often and much; to win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children; to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends; to appreciate beauty; to find the best in others; to leave the world a bit better; whether by a healthy child, a garden patch or redeemed social condition; to know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived. This is to have succeeded.

Meghan T. Brophy

Gram and I went to Grandparents Days at Kent Place School. She died before the last one and I went alone. As the classes marched into the gym, Meg was the only one who broke away and ran over to where I sat and gave me a kiss. It created a lot of murmurming amongst the other grandparents!

That was my Meg.

Love, Gramp

I am blessed to have lived to see a daughter, a grandson, and now a granddaughter graduate from college. I am so proud fo you all. Meghan, I celebrate you and every phase and stage that has made you who you are today--a wonderful granddaughter. May god bless you and be your companion forever.

All my love, Gramps

Darling Meghan:

Let me count the ways I see before you as you march into your future:

A serene transition from school girl to you womanhood;
An eager pursuit of your place in the business sphere of your country;
A never ending growth in striving for excellence in the performance of the tasks the vicissitudes of life set before you;
A charming discrimination, nurtured by your gallant father, in choosing among all who court your favor;
A move into marriage enhanced by your generosity of spirit, tolerance, and capacity of your loving heart;
A sweetness of personality in motherhood learned at your mother's breast;
A modest acknowledgement of your iconic beauty;
And, dearest of all, constancy in reciprocating the tender love and care unceasingly showered upon you by your incomparable parents.

Congratulations, cherished grandchild-graduate!
With dearest love from Grandmother

Dear Meghan,

Congratulations! As you start your journey through life's countryside, may the angels of Good Health, Wealth and True Love accompany you until you reach the Gates of Heaven.

No one ever imagined that your schooling would end where your dad's began--right here in Worcester, and we are so blessed to have had you right in our backyard for these short years!

Best of health, happiness, and love in your future.
